USS JOHN F KENNEDY PROJECT

Newport County, Rhode Island

Rhode Island Aviation Hall of Fame, Inc., (RIAHOF), plans to develop a world-class, financially self-sufficient family attraction, education and job training center, museum and memorial on the Aquidneck Island (Newport) side of Rhode Island's beautiful Narragansett Bay, featuring the retired aircraft carrier John F Kennedy as the centerpiece.To be successful in today's environment, we know we must offer something exciting and dynamic; an attraction that will appeal to everyone---not just veterans and military buffs. This venue must draw younger generations, women, children and minority groups. And it must draw them more than once.

To help us fulfill that vision, please fill out the form below. Your tax-exempt contribution will bring us that much closer to ensuring that a great aircraft carrier will go back into service for our country as an educational and cultural asset. Please also consider updating your will, naming the Rhode Island Aviation Hall of Fame, Inc. as a beneficiary. (Such a bequest could significantly reduce your estate tax.)

To make a donation or pledge, please fill out this form and mail or fax it to:
